

he is not as bad as he looks.

Also remembers a young man by the name of Buss who was arrested a few times on charges of larceny that used to be quite intimate with the Williams people, and a person by the name of Speedy Bill. Another crony was Frank McLoughlin also called "Scuttles". At one time believes that the house was raided and raided by federal officers for a counterfeiting press which was reported to be there. Does not believe the raid was successful.

Chief Cady, on my suggestion, said that he would think the matter over of these things which happened about 16 years ago in an endeavor to remember other names and addresses. I told him that I would have Purdy see him some time tomorrow to get this additional information. He stated that practically all of the arrests in connection with the Williams family or their friends were made by officer Whalen.

September 13, 1926.

Gave this information to Purdy with the request that he follow it up today.
